Introduction of the Topic of

"Women and Society"

Prof. Dr. Annappa Korwar. He gave a good introduction to the students about women and society. Indian society has been exposed to the baroad process of social transformation, agricultural, modernization and economics development industrialization and globalization. Hence women have become critical symbols of these growing imbalances. All these have affected adversely the various aspects of women's states in the contemporary Indian.

Society women are equally important in the society as men are they are the backbone for a progressing nation. Demographically half a population of the country constituters women and they deserve equal importance and rights in society. A women should be given equal opportunities economically and socially.

They must be respected and never underestimated on the ground that they are women.
