Report on Career Program in Music Instrument Making Method

IQAC, UG and PG Department of Hindustani Music, HRD and Placement Cell of SJMVS Arts and Commerce College for Women, Hubballi jointly organized an informative and career program on 'Music String Instrument Making' on the 8th August 2022 at the college premises, aiming to provide valuable insights into the Tamburi instrument making to the students.

Mr. Haji Ahmad Sahab, So Aabaso, Sitar maker Sahab was the esteemed Resource Person, who has more than 70 years of extensive experience in the field of instrument making. His expertise and knowledge proved to be invaluable to the participants, offered a deep dive into the intricate processes involved in crafting and using musical instruments.

Mr. Ahmad Sahab shared his journey, techniques, and nuances of Tanpura/Tamburi instrument making, enlightening the audience with the rich heritage and craftsmanship involved in this art form. The session was interactive, allowing students to ask questions, seek advice, and gain practical knowledge from the master in the field.

The program was attended by a group of 25 students from Department of Hindustani Music. They actively participated in the discussions and demonstrations, eager to learn about this specialized career path within the realm of music.

The event not only provided students with a unique perspective on music instrument making but also highlighted potential career avenues in this field. Mr. Ahmad Sahab's guidance and expertise left a lasting impact on the participants, inspiring them to explore the art of instrument making as a viable and fulfilling career option.

The Career Program in Music Instrument Making Method was a resounding success, thanks to the collaboration of IQAC, UG and PG Department of Hindustani Music, HRD, and Placement Cell. It served as a valuable platform for students to expand their horizons, gain practical knowledge, and consider diverse career opportunities in the realm of Hindustani music.
