'THE PROUD ROSE'

Once upon a time, in a desert far away, there was a rose who was so proud of her beautiful looks. Her only complaint was growing next to an ugly cactus.

Everyday, the beautiful rose would insult and mock the cactus on his looks, all while the cactus remained quiet. All the other plants nearby tried to make the rose see sense, but she was too swayed by her own looks.

One scorching summer, the desert became dry and there was no water left for the plants. The rose quickly began to wilt. Her beautiful petals dried up, losing their lush color.

Looking to the cactus, she saw a sparrow dip his beak into the cactus to drink some water. Though ashamed, the rose asked the cactus if she could have some water. The kind cactus readily agreed, helping them both through the tough summer, as friends

THE EMPTY POT

An emperor in china decides to choose his successor by organising a Contest.

He asks Contestants to grow a flower & the most appealing flower will win the Contest.

Ping works hard with persistence. However, he fails to grow a flower. But he honestly presents his empty pot in front of the emperor & gets the reward for his honest approach.

The Moral.

Honesty is the best policy in life.
Even if you have to disappoint
Some people.

A Wise Old Owl

There was an old owl who lived in an oak tree. Every day, he observed incidents that occurred around him.

Yesterday, he watched as a young boy helped an old man carry a heavy basket. Today, he saw a young girl shouting at her mother. The more he saw, the less he spoke.

As the day went on, he spoke less but heard more. The old owl heard ~~a man saying that he had never made a mistake~~, people talking & telling stories.

He heard a woman saying an elephant jumped over a fence. He heard a man saying that he had never made a mistake.

The old owl had seen & heard what happened to people. There were some who became better some who became worse. But the old owl in the tree had become wiser, each and every day.

The Moral.

Be more observant. Talk less & listen more. This makes us

Value Yourself.

A speaker started his seminar by showing a ₹ for the public. He asks the people, "Who wants this?". There was no surprise to see that all of them raised their hands. He offered to give money to one of them but insisted he will do something to it. He crumpled the paper money and showed it again to the crowd & repeated the question. Still, everyone raised the hands. He then put the money into the ground and stepped on it and then raised it again and offered it to the public. The people gathered there, still showed interest to take that money despite seeing how dirty the note was. He told the public, "No matter what I did to this money, you all still wanted this. You all went in favour of my offer just because the value of the money never decreased. Similarly, value yourself despite the painful conditions or failures.

Moral: Believe in yourself and work hard to achieve success. Value yourself irrespective of the failures or obstacles and don't degrade yourself just because of the temporary setbacks.
